A DECLARATION OF UNITY

This we owe to A.A.’s future: To place our common welfare first; to keep our fellowship united. For on A.A. unity depend our lives and the lives of those to come.

I am responsible…

When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there.

And for that: I am responsible.
How G.S.O. Began

In the late 1930s, a small office in Newark, N.J., staffed by co-founder Bill W. and a secretary, was enough to maintain contact among the first 100 A.A. members. Soon, the fast-spreading Fellowship needed a real world service office, and “headquarters” was shifted to New York City, with moves from Vesey Street to Lexington Avenue to East 44th Street and to East 45th as membership grew into the hundreds of thousands. From 1970 to 1992 G.S.O. was located at 468 Park Avenue South.

G.S.O. Today

In 1992, G.S.O. moved to 475 Riverside Drive, where both A.A. World Services and Grapevine personnel are now housed on the same floor. For the present membership of over two million, an all-A.A. staff offers the services outlined in this pamphlet. A.A. and non-A.A. employees handle finances; prepare letters and bulletins; note group records, literature orders and contributions; ship material your way; and file incoming letters to add to the rich storehouse of A.A. experience at your G.S.O.

Archives

“When did A.A. start in my area?” “Why was the word ‘honest’ dropped from the Preamble?” Such questions are answered daily by the staff of the A.A. archives, a G.S.O. service born in 1973. Its projects include: digitizing long-accumulated records; retaping valuable tapes; collecting oral history tapes from early members; gathering local material from individuals and groups; and helping researchers inside and outside A.A.

Literature

Where does the Big Book come from? The other A.A. books? The pamphlets in your group’s literature rack? The work of A.A. World Services, Inc., the Fellowship’s publishing company, goes on at G.S.O. Translations of A.A. literature are also available here.

Loners and Internationalists

No meetings nearby? An A.A. in that situation may ask to be listed at G.S.O. as a Lone Member. Letters arrive from fellow Loners and other A.A.s (often listed as Loner Sponsors). If the A.A. is a seafarer, the A.A. Internationalists extend a welcome via G.S.O. Loners-Internationalists Meeting, an A.A. meeting by mail or email for those who cannot attend regular meetings. It is prepared by G.S.O. and mailed bimonthly to participants. Housebound A.A.s, known as Homers, are also members of the LIM Group.

Public Information

If you find the A.A. message being carried on TV, radio or Internet or in a national publication, chances are that G.S.O. helped to supply information. The staff member on the P.I. desk provides A.A. facts for the media, answers thousands of inquiries yearly from the general public, and is in touch with local P.I. committees and contacts. From G.S.O., they can order aids like the P.I. Kit and Workbook, Guidelines and PSAs.

Cooperation with the Professional Community

These days, more and more professionals, agencies, industrial programs, and professional associations are interested in helping the alcoholic. To make sure they’re aware of the long-range help offered by A.A., G.S.O. prepares information (such as the newsletter for professionals, About A.A.) and on request sends the Professional Exhibits to their national conferences. This G.S.O. desk is also an information exchange point for the increasing number of local C.P.C. committees.

Corrections

This assignment extends the hand of A.A. to those in correctional settings who are unable to call a sponsor or otherwise participate in the Fellowship of A.A., which we on the “outside” take for granted. The staff member on this assignment also coordinates the Corrections Correspondence Service and prerelease contacts.

Treatment Facilities
The aim of this assignment is to assist the work of A.A. members on local treatment facilities committees who carry the A.A. message to alcoholics in treatment facilities and to convey means and methods of bridging the gap for prospective A.A. members from treatment to A.A. groups.

International Conventions
Beginning at Cleveland in 1950, when A.A. was 15 years old, these Conventions have since brought members from around the world together at five-year intervals in joyful celebration of A.A.’s anniversaries. Close to the time of each Convention, information is relayed to the Fellowship through Box 4-5-9 articles.

General Correspondence
and Service Material “Let’s write to G.S.O.” Queries are answered with A.A. shared experience. All staff members handle general correspondence from specific regions — rotating to others regularly, just as they do in their service assignments (which also involve correspondence). Letters are answered in the language they are received.

Group Services
Useful ideas and information are relayed in service material such as the A.A. Directories, the Guidelines, tapes, films, the Group Handbook, and Box 4-5-9, the quarterly bulletin in English, French and Spanish. The A.A. Group Handbook, Box 4-5-9 and pamphlets are sent to new groups free of charge. Most service material is translated into French and Spanish.

International and World Service Meeting As Bill W. foresaw, G.S.O. has become “the senior service center” among many in worldwide A.A. This office maintains contact with other general service offices and literature distribution centers, no matter where or in what language.
The World Service Meeting (WSM), started in 1969 and now biennial, is held alternately in New York and an overseas country. The staff member handles correspondence with members and groups in countries without a structure, works with the Publishing Department on translations of A.A. literature, coordinates the WSM and is responsible for the World Service Meeting Report.

General Service Conference Months before each annual Conference, the staff member assigned to the Conference begins sending information and questionnaires to the delegates, who send back answers, queries, and agenda suggestions. G.S.O. arranges the meeting site, delegates’ housing, record-keeping and other details; sums up proceedings in Box 4-5-9;
and covers them fully in the Final Conference Report. Delegates and area committee members also receive the Quarterly Report, on activities of the General Service Board. All year, G.S.O. is the communications center for the U.S.-Canada service structure.

A.A. Regional and Local Forums
Started in 1975, Regional Forums are weekend A.A. events held four times a year — each in a region of the U.S. or Canada that has extended an Fellowship of A.A., which we on the “outside” take for granted. The staff member on this assignment also coordinates the Corrections Correspondence Service and prerelease contacts.

A.A. Regional and Local Forums

Started in 1975, Regional Forums are weekend A.A. events held four times a year — each in a region of the U.S. or Canada that has extended an invitation. Representatives of the General Service Board and G.S.O. and GV staffs participate in each Forum with A.A. members living or visiting in the region. The purpose of the meetings is to provide better communication among all levels of service for the region concerned. Planning and coordination, in conjunction with regional trustees and delegates, are handled at G.S.O. Local Forums, a scaled-down version of Regional Forums, organized on the local level with help from G.S.O., have been instituted to provide a Forum experience on a timely basis to meet cultural, accessibility and population needs in A.A. communities who for any reason are unable to attend regular Regional Forums.

G.S.O’s A.A. Website

With over 14 million visitors a year, G.S.O.’s A.A. website offers vital information in English, French and Spanish. The site is designed to focus on providing information and help to people concerned about a drinking problem; people looking for an A.A. meeting; and people looking for information about A.A., including the public, professionals dealing with alcoholic clients or patients, and members of the media. Visitors can view A.A. literature online; books, pamphlets and service material from G.S.O. are available to read for no charge online. There are also links to the A.A.W.S. online store to purchase literature and to online resources to purchase e-books.

AA Grapevine, Inc.

AA Grapevine, the international journal of Alcoholics Anonymous, includes magazines, a website and other published items. Articles, art and photographs, which reflect the growth of A.A. over the years, are not paid for, but contributed by members in free sharing of experience and thought, as in an A.A. meeting. You do not have to be a professional writer or artist to contribute to AA Grapevine and La Viña, A.A.’s Spanish-language magazine. All submissions are welcomed and acknowledged. Manuscripts are always read by A.A. members on the editorial staff. Published material is protected by copyright, held by AA Grapevine, Inc. — a corporation entirely separate from A.A. World Services, Inc.

What Can You Do for G.S.O.?

1. Share your experience with G.S.O. Your letters on the challenges that groups and members face today can help other A.A.s carry our message.

2. Keep G.S.O. informed

   Only you can make sure that directories and files contain up-to-date information on groups, meetings, committees, intergroups and central offices.

3. Remember Tradition Seven

   All of A.A. — G.S.O. as well as your group — is committed to self-support. Popular plans for contributions to G.S.O. are: Birthday Plan (on an A.A.’s anniversary, $1.00 for each year); monthly or quarterly contributions by groups; and recurring contributions that can be made online. Most to be desired is participation by every group — no matter what the amount.
