WEST CENTRAL REGION TO ELECT TRUSTEE CANDIDATE

Iowa . . . . Minnesota . . . . Missouri
Montana . . Nebraska . . North Dakota
South Dakota . . Wisconsin . . Wyoming

Those are the states in which Delegates and G.S. Committee Members have been asked to nominate A.A. members (one per state) for service on A.A.'s General Service Board, replacing the late R. Pay B., as West Central Regional Trustee.

Each state decides for itself how to name its candidate. Recommended qualifications are 10 years' sobriety, broad experience in A.A. activity, good business or professional background, and ability to make decisions concerning worldwide A.A., since Trustees do not serve their regions in any sectional sense.

Board of Trustees meetings take up at least 17 days a year. Hotel and travel expenses for all meetings are paid. Board meetings are held quarterly, the last Monday of October, January and July. The April meeting follows the close of Conference sessions on Saturday.

THEIR FIRST MEETING

Newly elected Regional Trustees Andy A., Michigan; Katherine P., Arkansas; Eric B., Washington; Maurice R., Louisiana, and Rollie D., Que., Canada, were welcomed to their first Quarterly Trustees meeting the last Monday in July.

are also Conference Members, thus should be available for this week.

Third Legacy election procedures are recommended (written ballots, 2/3 vote; or drawing by lot if voting fails). Names of state nominees are to be submitted by Jan. 15.

Final selection of the Trustee will be made in April, 1968, by the Delegates, the Conference Trustees' Committee and the Board's Nominating Committee. He serves until April, 1971.

This is A.A.—Can I Help You?

On First Contact with Newcomer

It happens every day. Maybe you answer an A.A. phone. Or visit a prospect who has asked for help. Or greet a newcomer attending his first A.A. meeting.

Thousands of us daily have this priceless privilege of being the first A.A. contact of a sick alcoholic making his first timid approach to A.A.

He may try to sound casual—but it is probably the most important call he will ever make. He may appear arrogant or belligerent—but inside, he's a sick, scared guy needing help.

So many of us feel that the first A.A. words a newcomer hears can make all the difference in his life.

Your First Call

Can you remember what the first A.A. you ever talked to said? Probably when you phoned, you heard: "This is A.A. Can we help you?"

Or, "Hello, my name is Tom and I am an alcoholic. Are you having trouble with your drinking?"

Or, possibly, "Hello. I'm an alcoholic named ———. How are you?"

Whatever you heard, you liked it or chances are you might not be around today. But if our mail is any indication, there are many first contacts that are badly handled. Bad, that is, in terms of warmth and understanding and all the things that give A.A. special appeal to the still suffering alcoholic.

"How would you feel?" one A.A. writes, "if the man on the other end of the phone said, 'Have you been to A.A. before?' Or, 'Do you want to stop drinking?' Thousands of us didn't intend to go that far when we first called A.A. Remember? We wanted service-station help, but we stayed around because we liked the way we were treated.'

Our mail has developed a long list of "don'ts"—all unappealing for the same reason. They lack the heart that is so typical of the effective first contact in A.A.

When the Spouse Calls

"We can't do anything unless your husband asks for help himself." This does sound as if we really don't care—when we do. That is why Twelfth-Steppers learned long ago that the least they can do is to get the spouse in touch with Al-Anon Family Groups. (Chapters 8 and 9 in the Big Book say it all.)

"This is A.A. Can I help you?" can be the most important words the still suffering alcoholic may ever hear. They were, for thousands of us and will be for thousands who still need to find a way out.

Here are a few items from "Box 4-5-9" just received from G.S.O. — our General Service Office in New York...

WORLD A.A. DIRECTORY AVAILABLE FOR TRAVELERS. See G.S.R. or Secretary. Deadline for new edition is coming up. If you’re a visitor from another group, remind your group to get its information card back to G.S.O. in time.

YOUNG AT HEART? If you know any young people in A.A., don’t miss the news about the latest International Conference of Under 40’s (see P. 4).

TO UNDERSTAND HOW OUR GROUP CONTRIBUTIONS can keep A.A. services going worldwide, see story on "Regular Contribution Plan," P. 3.

ASK-IT BASKET FOR GROUPS. Right below, on this page, are four interesting questions raised by A.A. groups, and some answers. Can our group contribute to this "sharing"?

A SUGGESTED WAY of protecting an A.A.'s anonymity is described in this issue. Looks good — why not look it over?

GROUP DISCUSSION TOPICS. There are some ideas for group discussion meeting topics in this issue. We might like to try some of them. Also, ideas for brightening our meeting room.

The Group IS 'A.A.' COPYRIGHTED?

"We have a city Arena-Auditorium which uses the initials 'A.A.' in newspaper articles. One recent headline said, 'A.A. Receives Liquor License.' Confusing, to say the least," writes D.W.

Our initials are not copyrighted. In many cities A.A.'s Public Information Committees see that enough newspaper stories about A.A. (our brand) appear to let sick alcoholics know that help is available through the local Alcoholics Anonymous—no matter what the hometown "A.A. Delivery Service" or "A.A. Dry-cleaning" are up to.

ARE NURSES WELCOME?

"Many student nurses and outsiders have been coming to the meetings to observe. This is very upsetting, especially to women speakers and some new members..." writes A.D.

Many come to A.A. meetings to investigate. This is usually one of the purposes of "open meetings." Actually it is difficult to distinguish alcoholics from nonalcoholics at most meetings.

Because our non-A.A. friends are so helpful in reaching sick alcoholics, perhaps the women A.A.'s who object could attend closed meetings, or maybe try to realize the nurses are only there to help alcoholics and will not break their anonymity.

As they become more acquainted with A.A., perhaps their acceptance of the illness of alcoholism will grow, too.

BRIGHTER MEETING ROOMS

Several groups have shown real imagination in keeping meeting places cheerful and pleasant.

"Sponsorship—the Hand of A.A." reads one big plaque beneath a picture of clasped hands. Other groups have framed the "I Am Responsible" declaration in blue or gold.

Different women members bring fresh flowers and table covers for each meeting in one city. Inexpensive, brightly colored paper table cloths and napkins add a festive note.

"Welcome to the Saturday Night Group" was the cheery greeting on a 20 x 30 piece of cardboard outside one meeting room we saw recently. Inside was, "What Have You Done for A.A. Today?"

Neat racks of A.A. pamphlets and tidy bulletin boards help make a group look alive and on its toes, too.

SOBRIETY FOR GROUP SERVANTS

Yes, but how much? That's the question we recently got from a Massachusetts group, about to elect a new Secretary and Treasurer.

Still Behind . . . But Encouraged

For the first time since 1957, last year the percentage of groups doing their part to support A.A.'s world services increased instead of decreased, according to our nonalcoholic smiling money man, Controller Dennis Manders, pictured above.

"Apparently when A.A.'s say they want the hand of A.A. to be there, anywhere, they mean it," Dennis declared. "Because more and more groups are using the Regular Contribution Plan to do their part in carrying the A.A. message worldwide."

The following letters show some of their thoughts...

"We voted to increase our monthly donation from $7.50 to $10 to help with this work..." — Baldwin, N.Y.

"Sending a small contribution, which we will strive to make a regular pleasure of ours. Thank you for your help. We pray that your only distress will be sore fingers from opening letters of praise and contributions from grateful people." — Elsinore, Calif.

"This brings our total to $101. By making a monthly contribution it is easier on the treasury and we don't break the bank for Gratitude Month."

— Fresh Meadows, N.Y.

"Enclosed find check which is all we can contribute to Group Fund this month.

— Decorah, Iowa

— Mishawaka, Ind.

— San Pedro, Calif.

— Toronto, Ont.

"We now announce that whatever besides the customary dollar bills we get in the hat goes to G.S.O. so we end up the month not broke and with something for you."

— Corona del Mar, Calif.

"The best way for me to stay sober is helping others who are still suffering by giving to G.S.O. I feel proud to belong to a group that sends its share."

"Enclosed is our first donation, and if all goes well we hope to contribute monthly." — Buffalo, N.Y.

"Our group voted unanimously to send a monthly contribution. I'm all for it."

— Buffalo, N.Y.

"We are proud of the wonderful work you are doing and will try to do our part — about $3.00 a month after our rent and Central Office are taken care of, as you suggested."

— Buffalo, N.Y.

"The Regular Contribution Plan is a fine way for groups to take care of this. The group treasury isn't hurt with a large payment at one time."

— Buffalo, N.Y.
NEW GRAPEVINE CALENDAR

The Grapevine announces a new desk or wall calendar - 7½ x 10 inches - twice that size when opened up on your desk or bedroom wall or bulletin board.

Each month is beautifully illustrated with a black and white photograph with thought-provoking text from great writings.

The price is $1.25 each and should be ordered now from: A.A. Grapevine, P.O. Box 1980, Grand Central Post Office, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Thanks for Hand of A.A. from...

...a federal pen

"Being in an institution, I can say first-hand how important outside group participation is to the incarcerated man. Five groups rotate to bring the A.A. message to inmates here. "We have nothing but admiration and respect for these people, as they give so unselfishly their time and literature, and make super-human efforts to bring A.A. to us."

-Sandstone, Minn.

...an 'outside sponsor'

"To all in A.A., thanks so much for helping me through the 24 hours that made it possible for me to have had my first birthday. This past year was one of the best of my life. "I was chosen to be outside sponsor for one group in our state penitentiary and helped start another. I am grateful I am allowed to do it."

-C.R.

...a local jail

"Thanks for the Handbook and literature for use at meetings in the local district jail. Anywhere from four to 12 inmates attend, many still in their late teens and early 20's. "Since most are here only 10 or 30 days, they attend only a few meetings here, but it plants the seed and they learn of outside meetings."

-North Bay, Ont.

SOUND FAMILIAR?

"Had a 'dry drunk,' or 'five-year-itis.' Yesterday my C.O. read me my promotion orders. First thought that flashed into mind was, 'Celebration!' Second was, 'Cool it, Dad, you're just one drink away from a drunk.' "Thanks for all the mail when I needed it most. Perhaps I'll survive prosperity."

-L.P.S., APO, San Francisco.

Anonymity on TV

In case you, as an A.A. member, participate in a TV interview, and the camera man is not familiar with how to handle our Tradition of public anonymity, here is a diagram showing the excellent way it was done at the Ohio A.A. Conference.

As you know this is in accordance with A.A.'s 11th Tradition which refers to anonymity: "Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and film.

It is always informative to include in the broadcast an explanation of why A.A. is anonymous at the media level - and not within A.A.

YOUNG A.A.'S CONFERENCE

10th Annual Conference Big Hit in Denver

Over 450 A.A.'s from Colorado, 18 other states and Canada hailed the 10th International Conference of Young People in A.A. as a 'rich sharing experience' in Denver.

And apparently Denver newspapers agreed, since they helped "carry the message" in a series of lavish, sensitive and beautifully written stories about A.A., sparked by the Conference.

Emphasis, of course, was on young people (under 40) who found themselves drinking alcoholically in their teens and most of whom were recovering in A.A. by their late 20's, early 30's or sooner.

Colorado's Lieut. Gov. Mark Hogan, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Minnis, Episcopal Bishop of the state, and Psychologist Stacey Warren of Colorado State Hospital were guest speakers.

Two inmate members from the state penitentiary A.A. group also spoke, along with A.A., Al-Anon, and Alateen members from Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, California, New York, Missouri, New Mexico, Ontario, and Texas.
JUST A COINCIDENCE?

From Westlake. O. "At 2 a.m. one recent Sunday the phone awakened me and it was C----! He said he decided to call before taking the drink, for once! "I congratulated him, but nearly fell out of bed when he said he was in New York! Besides, he said, the only things open at that hour were bars. I suggested he try to find an A.A. club open 24 hours.

"An hour later, he woke me again, a shaken guy. Said he had had no luck with the telephone directory, so he dialed Information, told her the story, and said, 'Can you help?'

"She replied, 'Yes, I'm in A.A.'

"The jolt saved him. Coincidence?"

TO HELP NEWCOMERS

Don't miss all the valuable tips in our new "Newcomers' Meeting Kit." New ideas for starting and leading excellent Beginners' Meetings, plus valuable literature. Only $1.00.

'GOD AS WE UNDERSTOOD HIM'

A group asks: "A member with quite some years of sobriety, and a leader in A.A., for three years has been quite a problem. He has joined a certain church and now influences A.A. members to join it, and be baptized. Then he says they don't need to go to A.A. meetings because the church is against drinking alcohol.

"It is destroying our A.A. group.

"We will appreciate very much advice or suggestions."

Frequent letters request suggestions for discussion meeting topics. Group experience indicates many sources are used to bring about helpful and meaningful discussions. They include:

- "The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions" - both the book and the pamphlet. Many groups discuss a Step a week, and then three Traditions a meeting, until finished.
- "The A.A. Way of Life," is full of interesting subject material - from "Acceptance" to "Worry" with an easy reference guide.
- "The Group Handbook" has ideas on its pages, too: Guidelines, P.1., literature, etc.
- "The Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions" is filled with the very life blood of A.A.
- "The Big Book" is filled with the very life blood of A.A.

"The A.A. Group," (pages 3 and 4) suggest informative and interesting topics, too.

FEATHER RIVER CANYON

"This morning finds me riding the Zephyr through the Feather River Canyon. How can I tell you, really, what it means to me to be cold sober this morning?

"In the old days I would have kept the club car steward up all night and by now he would know what sort of cad I can really be. Thanks for 'Loners Meeting' the past 13 years.

"The sky is blue, the sun is bright, the Sierra Madres are just plumb beautiful, and I'm plumb sober. Thanks, A.A. - thanks so very, very much!" - E.K., Utah.

DEUTSCH DOC ENDORSES A.A.

"German doctors cannot overlook the A.A. success any more," a "Deutsch-spraching" A.A. gal writes us from Baden-Baden.

"At a Wänderversammlung there (a convention for neurologists and psychologists), she reports that a Prof. Dr. Brautigam "set the first big cornerstone in German medicine for A.A. and his colleagues took favorable notice. It was phantastical!"

She says a young Berlin psychiatrist is also excited about A.A. The Deutschland Dr. Tiebout, perhaps?

The pamphlet, "The A.A. Group," answers most such questions—but not with any "rules," of course. Just flexible suggestions. Each group is autonomous in such matters, but there is surprising agreement based on long A.A. experience.

Many angles are involved: welfare of the group as a whole, encouraging new members to get active, the humility principle in rotation, etc. Local customs and group consciences have recommended everything from 3 months' to 2 years' sobriety for group officers, when possible.
