Convention tales:

I attended my first International Convention in Minneapolis in 2000 with my husband and best friend. Every single minute was magical. From the moment we got off the plane and were greeted by tons of screaming volunteers welcoming us at the gate, until the moment we drove away after the Sunday morning closing meeting.

I always encourage newcomers to start saving their pennies for the next one and to get in shape beforehand because your face muscles hurt from smiling 24/7 for 3 days, and your sides hurt from all the laughter in between.

This time our tiny home group from Forest Hills, NY., has 6 going to Vancouver. What a gift!
