There is still time to register and attend A.A.'s 90th Anniversary Celebration!

While our Official Housing Block has closed, registration is still open and you don't need to have accommodations from our Official Housing Block to attend. Can't make it to Vancouver? This year, we are offering a Virtual program track for individuals and groups wanting to watch from home.

What to expect?

Make sure to download the Convention Mobile App by searching "A.A.W.S Events" in your mobile device's app store. You will be able to use the app to access the maps of the Convention venues and local area information, as well as planning your days by saving your preferred schedule.

Convention tales:

I celebrated 51 years of sobriety last October. Seattle was my first convention, it was fantastic to be there. As I was leaving the washroom, a fellow stopped me and introduced himself by saying "You don't know me but we worked in the same facility 12 years ago. I found out that you didn't drink, which was different being you were in the forces and that you were an AA member. I watched you deal with some of the drunks that worked for you and waited for you to preach sobriety at them but you didn't. It made an impression on me and years later when life and drinking caught up to me I attended my first meeting. I have been sober over 5 years."
