Convention tales:

Hi dear brothers and sisters, I am an alcoholic from Mauritius (mr-i-shuhs) an island country off the southeastern coast of East Africa. Since January 2024 I have been preparing for the AA 90th International Convention, have saved money to attend and be among you. Forever GRATEFUL for what AA did for me and still doing miracles in my life. I did not believe that one day I would stay sober and happy. My family lives in Vancouver and I will be staying at their place. Its God plan for me but am still waiting for my visa to pay for registration. By the grace of my Higher Power, I leave the best decision in HIS HANDS and Let Go. I am sure I will be there with you all to enjoy the Convention. I am eagerly waiting for this moment.
