Originally developed as the souvenir book for the 2020 International Convention in Detroit.
Bob met Bill on Mother's Day, May 12, 1935, at Hemmick Seiberling's home. The two Vermonters had a lot in common — most significantly, their alcoholism. Bob later said of Bill, "[He] was the first living human with whom I ever talked who knew what he was talking about in regard to alcoholism from actual experience! As Bill put it, 'The spark was struck.' He stayed in Akron for three more months.

A still from a news film of Bill W. and Dr. Bob at residents training in the early 1940s.
